THE PARENT IN THE CATHOLIC SCHOOL COMMUNITY

ON ENROLLING YOUR CHILD in a Catholic school, you accept an invitation to belong to an educational community, with all the privileges and responsibilities this implies. You also accept an invitation to belong to a faith community and are therefore expected to commit yourself to co-operate with all those groups forming the faith community, and to commit yourself to the values of the Catholic school system.

YOU ARE WELCOMED INTO THIS COMMUNITY

It is expected that you give evidence of:

- ✦ Witness to the values of the Gospel of Jesus
- ✦ Collaboration with the community in the education and welfare of your child
- ✦ Involvement in helping develop the resources of the school and visiting the school to talk with teachers, attend celebrations and share other aspects of school life
- ✦ Share your particular gifts in ways which will build up the school by serving on committees or other administrative areas, in an advisory or executive capacity.

WITNESS TO THE PERSON AND GOSPEL OF JESUS

As a parent in a Catholic school, you accept the challenge of witness by:

- ✦ Developing and deepening your understanding of the Person and Teachings of Jesus and by living out this understanding;
- ✦ Taking an interest in school life and the progress of your child, accepting invitations to attend functions and events, meeting teachers, and attending celebrations such as school Mass and other prayer events;
- ✦ Sharing in some way in the development of the school resources, fund-raising, sharing your talents and expertise for the upbuilding of the school community and premises;
- ✦ Challenging, in an appropriate way, those people or structures within the school that work against the values of the Gospel;
- ✦ Forming a school / home relationship whereby the child learns the same ideas and values as the school tries to develop, especially in matters of faith and morals;
- ✦ Reflecting on your unique position of chief educator of your child and how to live your role as partner in his / her Christian education.

THE TEACHING OF THE CHURCH ON THE ROLE OF PARENTS IN CATHOLIC EDUCATION

The education of the child means a "drawing out" of the wonderful human potential that exists within each child, not just a potential to know, but also a potential to feel and love, to create art and music, to choose between right and wrong.

An essential part of this process is that pupils be able to observe models of adult living in the life-style of the educating community.

Before all others, parents are bound to form their children by word and example, in faith and Christian living.

There must be the closest co-operation between parents and the teachers to whom they entrust their children to be educated.

In fulfilling their task, teachers are to collaborate closely with the parents and willingly listen to them; associations are to be set up and held in high esteem.

Everyone involved in the school is part of the school community.

Parents are the central figures, since they are the natural and irreplaceable agents in the education of their children.

Achieving the educational aims of the school should be an equal priority for teachers, pupils and families alike, each on according to his or her own role, always in the Gospel spirit of freedom and love. Therefore, channels of communication should be open among all those concerned with the school. Frequent meetings will make this possible, and a willingness to discuss problems candidly will enrich this communication.

Parents are the first teachers of their children, and the primary responsibility remains with the parents. Many of the most important aspects of education can come only from the family. Experience has shown that a child's performance is significantly higher, when parents are seen to be interested and involved.

Parents are also often under great pressure in these times of change and economic struggle. They need all the help they can get in their role as parents. The school community can do much to help parents, since they are trained professionals; therefore, good communication is worth fostering, for the good of parent, pupil and teacher.
